SPRING-SUMMER 2020

A word from the President

We will remember this year 2020! The planet has stopped its economic and social rotation because of an entity invisible to the naked eye. It's incredible ! As a more localized consequence, most equestrian activities are turned upside down, traditional competitions and events will not take place, whether we think of the Calgary Stampede or closer to us at the Festival Western de St-Tite. Still happy that the care of horses has been considered a priority area by the government.

If we want to highlight a positive point from these events, the isolation has enabled several families to find a less hectic pace of life, to reconnect with the children and to take care of their health.

For horse owners who have their own facilities, this is extra time to spend with our equine friends, to hitch or hike.

Like every good thing has an end, the corollary is also true: every bad thing also has an end. After a heavy rain, the rainbow springs! It's going to be fine !!!

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING — November, 2019

On November 30th, 2019, the Annual General Meeting was held, Yves Gour presented to the members the activities done during the year and Diane Goyette explained the Financial Results.

The AGM was followed by the celebration of the year ending. What best than a wonderful delightful meal between friends, with draws and prizes. A diaporama of the SLCDC members in action was running during the whole evening. Everyone participated in groups, to the survey that challenged equestrian knowledge of each. Thank you to Melissa Morio for creating this Quiz, which interested members as well as their family and friends.

Thank you to everyone that could participate, to the Willow Inn Restaurant staff, and to the numerous sponsors who ensure that this event be a success.

After celebration, the SLCDC took the opportunity to wish all the best for the Christmas Holidays and to encourage everyone to continue participating to the 2020 activities.

Hilary Beaty: Going back to old times with a recipe exchange! As the world is social distancing right now, many of us are experimenting in our kitchens to help pass the time. So you are invited to be a part of a #QuarantineCooking recipe exchange!

Here's a pic showing us trying to keep everyone busy. This is a photo my neighbor took of us tilling the garden with a cultivator, and Pablo and Timothy pulling. We had great fun and people on the road even stopped to take a look. We need more practice though. I don't think we will be winning any prizes yet. Our rows are a little snake-like.

ENCOURAGE OUR LOCAL GROWERS IN THIS TUMULTUOUS PERIOD

Usually, Jack Thomas and Ange-Marie Delforge potatoes, producers for 18 years, leave the farm in conveyer or towards processing plants to be sold to restaurateurs and sugar shacks. As several restaurateurs have closed their doors since then the implementation of government emergency measures. So they have a surplus of 80,000 pounds of potatoes. So they opened a pop-up kiosk on their farm so that people could buy a 50-pound bag. Red, white or white potatoes and cabbage at $ 15 each. In order to respect social distancing and to continue their work in the fields, the producers have set up a system self-service. Under the tent installed for the occasion, interested people can buy what they want and put the money in a box identified for this purpose. They would also like to give back to the next person by making a donation to a health establishment or an organization that needs it. (eg Hospital, Valleyfied, Lakeshore or Moisson Sud-Ouest, etc.).

Kiosk open to the public Monday to Saturday from 8:30 am to 5:30 am at 103 St-Emmanuel in Coteau-du-Lac.

We harvest the green asparagus ... at the same time "baby" nuts arrive in the walnut orchard. Let us hope that Pancrace, Servais and Mamert (the ice saints next week) give them the chance to reach maturity in the fall.

In the meantime you can enjoy green asparagus at the farm, Monday, Wednesday, Friday 9 a.m. / 12 p.m. and 2 p.m. / 6.30 p.m. as well as Saturday morning 9 a.m. / 12 p.m.
